

STUDENT-CENTERED WORKSHOPS FOR ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Sponsored by the Center for Academic Excellence

September 14
Thursday, 10 a.m.

How We Survived and Thrived the First Year

Successful upperclassmen share how they navigated their first year, and you can too. Free coffee & tea.

Marulli Welcome Center

September 27
Wednesday, 7 p.m.

Put Your Best Foot Forward: Academic Etiquette

Professor Séamus Pender and the CAE will help you speak your professor's language and understand the Franklin Pierce academic culture. Free coffee & advice.

Marulli Welcome Center

October 19
Thursday, 7 p.m.

Seven Habits of Successful Student Writers

Sophomore Ariel Dumont and Wensberg Writing Director Alan Schulte will offer strategies for writing success at Franklin Pierce. Free flash drives!

Cheshire Hall
3rd Floor

November 1
Wednesday, 10 a.m.

Go Outside & Feel Better: Green Breaks for Academic Success

Learn about the value of "green breaks" by taking one! Adventure Recreation Director, Doug Carty and student leaders will guide you through a short and informative hike on campus trails.

Front of Adventure
Rec. Lounge

November 16 & 17
Thursday, 10 a.m.
Friday, 10 a.m.

Last Five-Weeks Brunch

Enjoy the CAE staff's home cooking, and discuss your challenges and our strategies for the last five-weeks of the semester. Sign up for a seat individually or with friends (by appointment only). Did we mention the free food?

Center for Academic Excellence

December 7
Thursday, 7 p.m.

Managing Test Anxiety

Stay cool for exam time. Jeff Ogden of the CAE will tell you about common causes of test anxiety and how to manage it. Such a great topic we don't even need freebies and giveaways, right?

Marulli Welcome Center

p (603) 899-4107
e academicexcellence@franklinpierce.edu
l Library, 4th Floor (Tower)