

Undergraduate Suspension/Dismissal sanction Appeal Form

A student can appeal an academic dismissal or suspension sanction by following the steps below:

1. Write a summary of your work this semester, an explanation for your below-standard academic performance and the specific steps you will take to improve on your academic work.
2. Submit the completed form to your Dean.

Your advisor may also provide supporting information to your Dean and the Associate Provost. The Academic Standards Committee (ASC) will review your appeal and advisor provided information. ASC will then make a recommendation to your Dean. The Dean will notify you of a final University decision via your Franklin Pierce University email.
